

The Young Audience program offers a unique and highly affordable professional theater experience available for school age youth. The RRT brings in professional touring groups/individuals for school day performances up to seven times a year. Tickets are $3.50 for students, chaperones and teachers and are available to all public, private and home schools. Performances range in variety from interactive science and history shows to spectacle shows and all range of Musical Theater performances in between. The eclectic blend of programming keeps young audiences interested and engaged.

THEATER ETIQUETTE: The audience plays a key role in the overall theater experience. Each audience member affects those around them as well as the performers. Remind your class that everyone will have an especially wonderful time at the performance by remembering their theater manners.

Here is how students can help: * It is important to remain seated throughout the performance.

*Photography and recording during the performance are not permitted.

*Don't talk during the show unless you are asked. Sometimes we think that a whisper is okay, but if everyone whispers, it can be disruptive to the performers.

*Turn watches, pagers and cell phones to silent.

*Show the performers your appreciation for their efforts by applauding.

*Restroom visits are best made prior to seating.

*Give your full attention to the performers. In return, the performers give you a better performance.

*Do not interrupt performers with comments that may disrupt the performance for others.

Your cooperation will ensure a well-focused environment for everyone to enjoy, cherish & remember!
